MAGGIE'S ATTIC

Maggie & Sean Stocker

555 Maplewood Avenue, Maplewood
973-555-5555 | maggiesattic.com

The first item Maggie ever sold was a vintage piece she found in her grandmother's attic. That led us to search out other places to find forgotten but beautiful and useful items. When customers scooped them up from our online shop, we knew it was time to open a physical space so people could touch and see our treasures. We mostly stock home decor and kitchen items and have developed a following for that place to find beloved pieces you never knew you needed.

POWER LENDING

Charles Power

136 South Orange Avenue, South Orange
973-555-5555 | powerlending.com

Buying a home is fraught with anxiety, especially when it includes securing a mortgage. I make it my business to simplify the process so it doesn't add to the stress. Step by step, I take my clients through the initial application and pre-approval to final closing, coaching them about what to expect including verifying financial information, coordinating appraisals, and preparing closing documents. I'm grateful for the excellent reviews from my clients and look forward to meeting many more awesome homebuyers this year.

PAINT PROS

Michael Striker

425 Valley Street, South Orange
973-555-5555 | paintpros.com

I've been painting – inside and out – since I was a teenager helping my father maintain his various properties. It's the only chore I liked to do because I was good at it. When it was time to figure out a job, I went to work for another company to understand the business side. Later I launched my own business and am now in my ninth year. I still love to paint but I really enjoy the relationships I've made with my customers. It feels good to be someone they depend on to keep their homes looking great.
